

MCG PLC was delisted from the London Stock Exchange main market on 24 June 2020.

Shareholder related queries are still handled by Link Asset Services. To contact Link, Signal Shares, the secure online site is still available on www.signalshares.com, alternatively the Link Asset Services helpline is available on 0371 664 033, or if calling from overseas on +44 371 664 0391. Calls are charged at the standard geographic rate and will vary by provider. Calls outside the United Kingdom will be charged at the applicable international rate. They are open between 09:00 - 17:30, Monday to Friday excluding public holidays in England and Wales

Frequently asked questions

Will the Company be issuing new share certificates?

Current share certificates are valid and there is no requirement to issue new certificates as a delisted company

Is the CREST system still active for shareholders?

Yes, the company is maintaining CREST where appropriate.

Is the company offering a share dealing service?

The company does not offer a share dealing service, a simple and competitively priced service to buy and sell shares is provided by Link Asset Services. There is no need to pre-register and no complicated forms to complete. Visit www.linksharedeal.com for more information